

1 January 2016

Social Media Policy
for
Parami Energy Group of Companies:

PARAMI ENERGY GROUP OF COMPANIES promotes discourse that is professional, honest, and with integrity. This Social Media Policy pertains to the corporate code of conduct that provides guidelines for employees who post content on the internet and forms of social media. This pertains to those employees who make postings as part of their job or their private life.

Introduction:

1. Employees should exercise fairness, proper courtesy, consideration and sensitivity in dealing with customers, colleagues, and stakeholders. Employees must not disclose any confidential or private information obtained through her/his employment to third parties, and should share confidential or private information only with the Company management and other employees on a need-to-know basis.
2. This is in no way to say that we are against personal freedom of speech. These guidelines are meant to preserve the company's professional interest.
3. This policy is concurrently aligned with the Company's Code of Conduct policy of which some overlaps will be seen. This policy applies to all employees, officers and directors of the Company and its related subsidiaries or group of companies.

Social Media: Parami's senior management understands that social media is now a key communication channel. While personal opinions do matter, there is a need for professional guidance when it comes to company plans. Forms of social media include: Facebook, Twitter, blogs, Viber, line, etc.

1. Employees will seek permission before posing Parami's current, potential, and future business plans, unless it has already been established through media channels affairs on social media.
2. It is unacceptable for Parami employees to disclose dishonourable content, such as racial, cultural, ethnic, sexual, religious slurs through social media outlets.

Prepared By: Yap Kwong Weng, Chief Operating Officer &
Hillary Strasser, Assistant CSR Manager
Parami Energy Group of Companies

Approved By:

Pyi Wa Tun
CEO and Chairman
Parami Energy Group of Companies